

Glenn Edward Teasley

November 28, 1943 - April 26, 2019

Glenn Edward Teasley passed away unexpectedly on April 26, 2019, at Park West Hospital in Knoxville, TN, surrounded in love by his family.

Glenn was born on November 28, 1943, in Anderson, S.C. He moved to Oak Ridge in 1945 with his parents, Norman Allan Teasley, Sr. and Lucille Fountain Teasley and his brother Norman Allan Teasley, Jr., where he graduated from Oak Ridge High School in 1961. Following high school, Glenn attended Tennessee Technological University in Cookeville, TN, and East Tennessee State University in Johnson City, TN, where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Glenn had a wonderful outgoing personality, sharp wit, and signature positive attitude; he not only projected these characteristics in his personal relationships, they also contributed to his successful career in sales. Glenn always had a talent for sales, even in his youth. He often earned awards for "selling the most" whether it be on his newspaper route or in scouts. After college, Glenn worked in various areas of the floor covering industry starting off with management sales positions with Tarkett-Armstrong -- often attaining salesman-of-the-year recognition. This experience prepared him to fulfill his longtime goal of owning his own business. He began with retail and wholesale stores in Atlanta and Nashville and later was a partner in a flooring covering distributor business headquartered in Chattanooga, TN. Glenn often said he loved every minute of his career and had fun doing it. He retired in March 2013 and enjoyed playing golf in his leisure time, going to the gym, beach trips to Hilton Head Island, S.C., with his family, as well as working in his yard. Glenn recently stated he had no regrets. Glenn is a member of Kern United Methodist Church.

Glenn is preceded in death by his parents, Norman Allan Teasley, Sr. and Lucille Fountain Teasley.

Glenn is survived by his wife of 52 years, Anne Maggart Teasley; his daughter and son-in-law Ashley and Wallace Dalton of Clinton, TN; his grandson, Liam Riley Dalton of Clinton,

TN; his brother and sister-in-law, Norman Allan Teasley, Jr. and Judy Teasley of Knoxville, TN; nephews and (spouses), Norman Allan Teasley, III (Stacey); Tony Teasley (Molly); Geoffrey Eisenstadt (Susan); Jonathon Eisenstadt; Tommy Eisenstadt; and Matthew Eisenstadt (Rachael) of California; his uncle, Larry Fountain of Williamston, S.C.; and many great nieces and nephews and cousins.

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to Martin Oak Ridge Funeral Home, Oak Ridge, TN. Visitation will take place at Kern Memorial United Methodist Church, 451 East Tennessee Avenue, Oak Ridge, TN 37830, on Friday, May 3, from 1:30 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. with Celebration of Life for Glenn immediately following at 3:00 p.m. The Rev. Daniel H. Taylor will officiate. A private graveside will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that you make a donation to your favorite charity or to Kern United Methodist Church.

“ My condolences to Anne and Ashley and all others affected by the loss of Glenn. Glenn gave me my first real opportunity at a great job when I was just 25. He was a mentor in teaching me how to sell. I don't think I ever heard Glenn raise his voice he was a class act, a true gentleman and a great boss.

“ Our friendship goes back so far. He loved cars and always had one, when most of our friends didn't. Anne is so precious to me and has been over so many years. Praise to the Lord for friendships like this. He will be missed.
