“ Bill, Janet, Nancy, and Gene,

I was very sorry to learn of Bob's death, which I heard about from Larry and Jane Larkin, with whom Bob and I double dated several times in high school. My condolences to you and the rest of his family.

Bob and I talked briefly the summer of 2005, when I was in town working on my parent's house; otherwise I hadn't been in touch much since our college days.

Sincerely,

Carol Dabbs

“ I was very sorry to hear of Bob's passing. I was a roommate of Bob's at the Hawaiian Village Apartments in Gainesville, Florida where we both worked at the Research Computing Center. Bob was in my wedding in 1972. Last saw Bob in Charlotte NC on a business trip. My condolences to all the family.

“ I'm sorry to hear about Bob's passing. I worked next door to him back in the 80s when you kids were young. I remember one day he was late to work because one of the kids hid his car keys. He was a brilliant man.
