“ I remember Ron in high school and at Samuel's, always helpful and friendly in both places. When you wanted quality clothing, that's where you went. We have lost a good one. Joe Ryan

“ Ronnie was such a good friend to my father (Jack Gibson). I remember flying to the beach for the day with dad and Ronnie and feeling oh, so grown up at the age of 12. Samuel's was a staple in men's clothing in Oak Ridge. And I'll always remember Ronnie quick smile. May peace be with you. Claudia Gibson Simpson

“ I have such vivid and happy memories of times when I knew Ron. During his years in ORHs, every single person in school knew Ron. His musical expertise and talent with his trumpet made him a star known and admired by everyone in that school. I understand that continued throughout his days at Alabama. When Ron returned from school at Alabama and ran Samuels, my father wouldn't shop anywhere else. Ron gave Dad special attention and some pointers on men's fashion that made my father the best dressed man at our family reunions attended by up to 100 cousins. Mother worked with Ron on advertising for the store in the Oak Ridger. She really enjoyed their collaboration. I left Oak Ridge after high school but I will always remember Ron with the greatest respect and admiration. Ellen Carey Appel
